

Is there a book, historical event, or video game that you've always wanted to see made into a movie?

What's a piece of movie trivia that you can always recall off the top of your head?

What is your favorite movie? Why?

What is your go-to comfort movie?

September

Awards shows have many award categories. If you could add another to your favorite awards show, what category would you add?

If they made a movie of your life, what would the title be? Whom would you like to star as you?

Have you ever been to a filming location for a movie or TV show? Was there anything that surprised you about the place?

Explain your favorite movie in one sentence without naming characters.
For the table: Guess which movie it is!

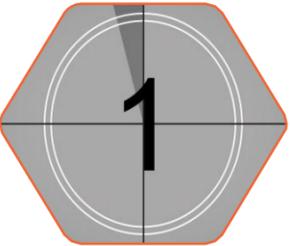

What's your favorite movie snack? Do you prefer sweet, salty, or a combination of both?

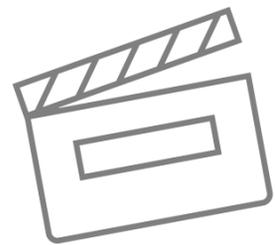

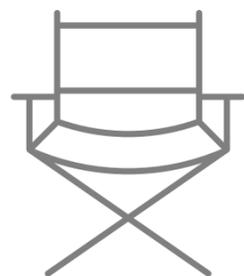

If you could live inside of the world of any movie for a week, which one would you pick?

Which movie has your favorite soundtrack or score?

Add your logo here

Is there a TV show or movie that's high on your to-watch list?

Draw your favorite movie character or recreate your favorite movie poster!

Name an actor so perfectly suited for a role you can't imagine anyone else ever playing that part.

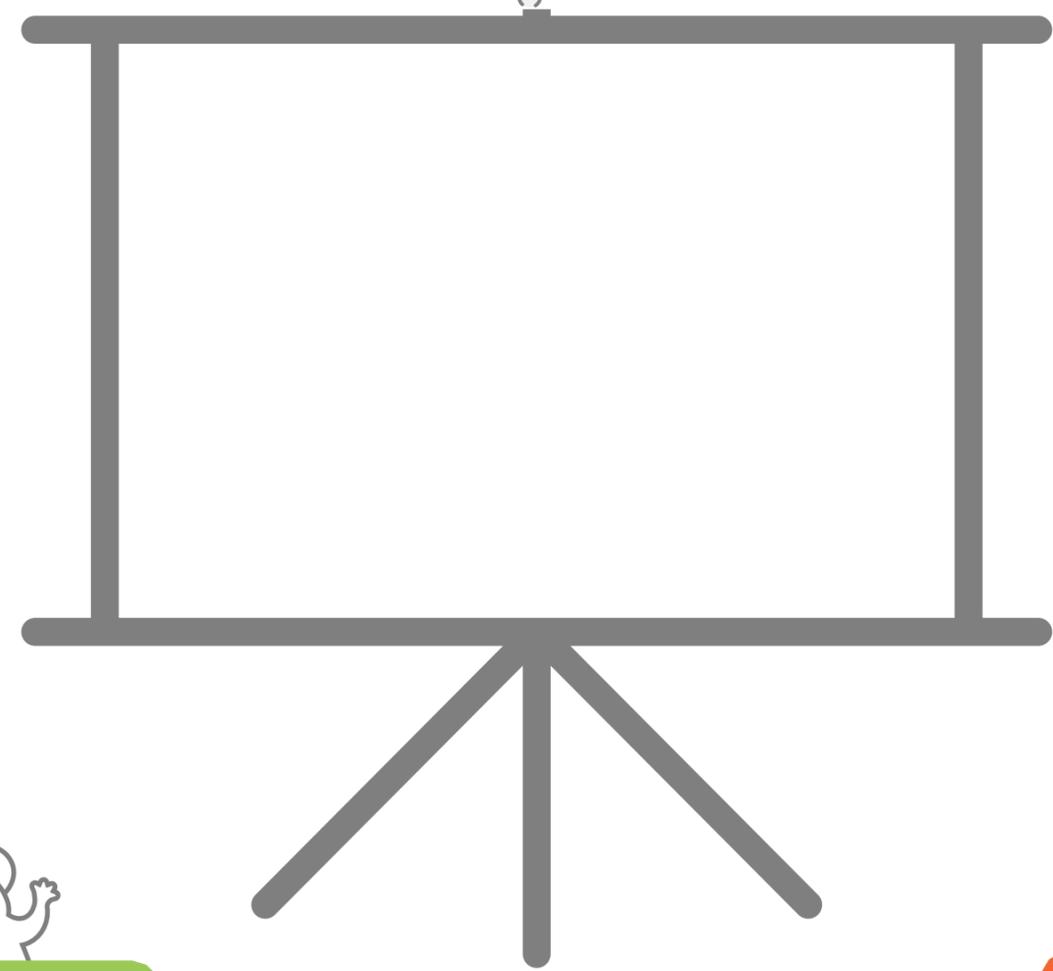

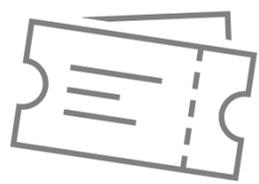

Is there a movie that changed the way you think about life?

Do you have a go-to movie line you always quote? Give us your best impression!

What's a movie or film adaptation that everyone seems to love, but you can't get into?

What movie have you seen most often?

If you were to write a movie, what would it be about? Describe the characters and setting!

If you had to create a documentary highlighting one day in your life, who would you choose to be the narrator?

What is the last movie you saw in a theatre?

Have you ever watched a Director's Cut of a movie? Which movie was it?

There are many movie genres (and subgenres!) out there. What's one of your favorites? Why?

Name a movie actor whom you don't like. Why?

Name a movie actor who draws you to watch practically anything they're in.

Add your logo here

