

Washington Public Policy Conference

June 8-10, 2009 • Grand Hyatt Hotel, Washington, DC

Employment and Labor Law Briefing (open to all conference registrants)

Presented by Jay Krupin of Epstein, Becker & Green Law Firm

When: 10:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Grand Hyatt Hotel

Jay Krupin is a renowned labor law attorney of N.G.A.'s outside labor counsel, Epstein, Becker & Green; and the Co-Chair of the Firm's National Labor Practice Steering Committee. Mr. Krupin leads the Labor and Employment and Litigation Practices in the firm's Washington, DC office. He is well-versed in management-union issues, employment discrimination matters and wage and hour practices.

N.G.A. and FMI Honoring the Boards of Directors and the National Moment of Remembrance

(Newseum, 555 Pennsylvania Ave, N.W.) (All Registrants and Invited Guests)

Conference registrants and invited guests will dine on the 8th floor terrace overlooking historic Pennsylvania Ave. with breathtaking views of the U.S. Capitol and Washington, D.C. The Newseum is one of the city's newest attractions and serves as the location for ABC's Sunday morning news show "This Week" with George Stephanopoulos.

TUESDAY June 9

Featured Speakers When: 1:30 p.m. to 4:30 p.m. Grand Hyatt Hotel

Congressman Frank Pallone, Jr. (D-NJ)

Congressman Pallone is the co-author of H.R. 759, the Food and Drug Globalization Act of 2009, which seeks to enhance and modernize the nation's food safety system through prevention, intervention and response. Pallone, in his 11th term in Congress, represents New Jersey's Sixth Congressional District and serves as a senior member of the House Energy and Commerce Committee, which has jurisdiction over issues pertaining to energy, environment, health care, commerce and telecommunications.

Congressman Gene Taylor (D-MS) (Invited)

Congressman Gene Taylor is one of a handful of Democrats who are opposed to the Employee Free Choice Act. Taylor represents Mississippi's 4th Congressional District which encompasses the entire Mississippi Gulf Coast, including his hometown of Bay St. Louis which was devastated when Hurricane Katrina made landfall. He is a member of the fiscally conservative House Blue Dog Coalition.

Congressional Staff Briefing

Key Congressional staff will brief conference attendees on current agenda items, including the status of the Employee Free Choice Act. This briefing will provide timely information on behind the scenes efforts and help arm participants with the most current information ahead of Congressional Hill visits.

WEDNESDAY June 10

Featured Speaker When: 8:00 a.m. to 9:30 a.m.

Breakfast on Capitol Hill before Congressional Meetings • Senate Caucus Room

Senator John Thune (R-SD) (Invited)

Senator Thune is the junior Senator from South Dakota. As the Senate Republican Conference Vice Chairman he has been a leader on opposing the Employee Free Choice Act in the U.S. Senate.
